

David Domoney's Christmas Gardeners' Gift Guide

Grow Your Own Magazine Subscription

A lot of people would not think of buying a magazine subscription as a Christmas present, but they really are the gift that keeps on giving. It's like getting a present every month throughout the year! I've done this a couple of times and people are so chuffed with it. For a gardener, you can't go wrong with Grow Your Own Magazine, which is packed full of useful and interesting info all year round.

RSPB Garden Wildlife Camera

For the wildlife lover in your family, this is a truly awesome gadget. The weatherproof, state-of-the-art Sony 700 TV Line camera gives excellent video by day and infrared (black and white) at night at a range of 20 m. It hooks simply into your TV, so you can switch over day or night to spy on the different types of wildlife creeping around your garden.

Twine Unwind Toiletries Set

After a long day in the garden it's amazing to be able to sink into the tub and relax, and this set is the perfect treat for tired hands and body alike. Outdoor work can be really tough on your skin, so it's a great idea to help your gardening loved ones take proper care of themselves. You can get this one at Notcutts Garden Centres or online.

RHS Hampton Court Tickets

Sometimes an experience is more exciting than an item. The RHS Hampton Court Palace Show is a horticultural world of wonders, with incredible show gardens, celebrity speakers, a myriad of beautiful and interesting plants to buy, all set in the incredible Hampton grounds. It's an incredible day out for anyone, but for a gardener, it's heaven on earth.

National Garden Gift Vouchers

There are few things I get more excited about under the tree than these. These vouchers are a gardener's best friend, because they can translate into almost anything else on this list and more. Accepted at over 2000 garden centres across the UK, these beauties are an absolutely foolproof prezzie this Christmas.

Bee & Bug Biome

We've all heard about how our buzzing friends are in trouble at the moment, so what better way to help them out than to provide a bee hotel for them to hang out in! Plus it's a wonderful way to bring more wildlife into the garden.
